Dear brother

I calculated to have started for Sandusky this morning but the weather is so very unfavourable I have concluded to go no farther I have had the Meazles very severely this Spring and you know exposure to rain might ruin my health and perhaps terminate my life in such a case This is my excuse for not coming to see you

I have left a request for bro. Eleat to return to Sandusky as soon as he gets home and carry you the funds I brought on from Cincinnati

There is $254 46 which with your due bill (for $25) Bro. Puter says is the whole amount of the draft you hold against him

I also send you $28 from our Missionary Society with a small donation — please to acknowledge the receipt of this in a letter as soon as you get it I am in great haste having to return to G. M. at Xenia Harpwell
